Silicon Valley Education Foundation DreamMakers 2020: Full STEM Ahead

An online fundraiser honoring our Students, Teachers, and College Mentors of the Year

SAN JOSE, Calif. -- Silicon Valley Education Foundation (SVEF) will host its annual fundraising event in a virtual setting this year. DreamMakers 2020: Full STEM Ahead will be held online on October 8, 2020 from 4:30 - 5:30pm PT. The event will feature

- Chocolates and wine pairings from Emma's Delights, Cooper-Garrod Estate Vineyards and House Family Vineyards, with Tasting Kits delivered to guests
- Virtual Tasting Rooms and opportunities to gather online
- Online award presentations for our Teachers, Students, and College Mentor of the Year.
- Updates about SVEF's work to keep students learning during the pandemic.

Tickets range from $75 (attendance only) to $500 (concierge service with wine and chocolates). For event information, or to purchase tickets, visit www.sveffoundation.org/events/DM2020

Proceeds will support the nonprofit Silicon Valley Education Foundation, which brings award-winning STEM learning programs, like Elevate [Math] and the Computer Science Institute, to 5,000 students per year. SVEF also provides essential training for teachers in under resourced school districts. Gifts from donors keep programs free for students and affordable for school districts. Community support also allows SVEF to adapt quickly to students' changing needs during the pandemic, including a shift to distance/ online learning in summer 2020.

Fremont Bank is the Featured Sponsor of SVEF's DreamMakers 2020: Full STEM Ahead event. Presenting Sponsors include Adobe, Oracle, PwC, and Western Digital. Other corporate sponsors include Applied Materials, Boston Consulting Group, Cisco, Google, Juniper Networks, Micron, San Francisco 49ers Foundation, and Wilson/ Sonsini.
